CANDLE IN THE WIND 1997
In loving memory of Diana, Princess of Wales

Music by ELTON JOHN
Words by BERNIE TAUPIN

In a slow 2

Good-bye, England’s rose; may you ever these empty days

Love-liness we’ve lost;

growth in our hearts. You were the grace that placed itself... where without your smile. This torch we’ll always carry for our lives were torn apart... You called out to our country, And even though we try. and you whispered to those in pain. Now you belong to the truth brings us to tears. All our words can heaven, not express the joy you've brought us through the years.

And it seems to me you lived your life like a candle in the wind, never fading with the sunset when the rain set in.

Good-bye, England’s rose; may you ever grow in our hearts.

You were the grace that placed itself where lives were torn apart.

Good-bye, England’s rose,
And your footsteps will always fall here along
